From Trauma to Triumph

a cultural event in recognition of Black History Month

Tuesday, February 9, 2016

Monica Wilson, Ph.D.
Chairperson,
Behavioral Health Commission

San Bernardino Valley College
Liberal Arts (LA) Building 100
701 South Mount Vernon Ave.
San Bernardino, CA 92410

8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Akin Merino, Ph.D.
Vice Chairperson,
Behavioral Health Commission

Keynote presentation, cultural performances, resource fair and food.

The purpose of the celebration is to further our understanding of the African American culture through education and collaboration and to promote mental health awareness. It is an opportunity to remember and recognize the many accomplishments and contributions of African Americans to our nation.

The event will include presentations from San Bernardino County Behavioral Health Commissioners, Dr. Monica Wilson, Assistant Professor at the College of Letters and Sciences in the Psychology Department of National University, and Dr. Akin Merino, Vice President of Academic Affairs at Argosy University, Inland Empire.
